Disclaimer: this document is a transcription of the original deed, registered at the Spartanburg Register of Deeds in deed book 82R, page 862, and serve only to provide a searchable form on the declaration. This document cannot be used to claim legal standing. This document has been compiled from the original Declaration and the subsequent Amendments 1, 2, 3 and 4 and some of the Supplementary Declarations. The editors of this version believe this is the most recent version of the declaration.

Editor's Note: The Third and Fourth Amendment to the Protective Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions filed on resp. September 7th, 2012 and November 8th, 2012 have been included in this version, despite being filed too late under Article 4.3(1). In a judgment by the 7th Judicial Circuit of South Carolina in case 2019CP4203679 (Glenlake Upstate Homeowners Association, Inc. vs REDACTED, defendant, et al) on March 29, 2021, the judge concluded that all property in Phase 2C is bound to the Covenants, despite the lateness in issuing the Fourth Amendment to the CC&R.

By implication, this also means that all of the other phases that were annexed post-Fourth Amendment (i.e. Phases 3C, 4B, 4C, 5A and 5B), are to be considered covered by the Covenants following the judge's arguments. The Third Amendment is also considered valid following these arguments.
